

The Mystery Trip: Transcript of first 100 words

Greta and Griffin Grizzlegrot could never agree on anything.

“The day is too cold,” said

Griffin Grizzlegrot.

“No, it’s not,” said Greta. “The air is lovely. It’s fresh.”

“Speaking of ‘fresh’, this fruit salad is not very fresh!” she said.

“Yes, it is!” said Griffin. “It is perfect.

It’s the best fruit salad I’ve ever eaten.”

The Grizzlegrots could not stop arguing.

They argued all night and all day.

“The sun is too hot,” said Greta.

“Too hot? Ridiculous!” said Griffin.

“The weather is perfect. I love sunshine.

I hate cold, dark nights.”

“I don’t,” said Greta. “I love dark

100 words

nights because I can look at the moon.
