2	Sebastian was at the beach with his family. His mother could swim. His father could swim. His grandma could swim. And his sister could swim.
3	But Sebastian could not swim. “I want to learn to swim,” said Sebastian.
5	His mother said, “You can learn to swim. You can do it.” “No, I can’t,” said Sebastian.
6	His father said, “You can swim. Jump in and move your wings.”
7	Sebastian jumped in and moved his wings, but he couldn’t swim. “See! I can’t swim,” said Sebastian.
9	His grandma said, “You can swim. Kick your feet.” Sebastian kicked his feet, but he couldn’t swim.
